THIS IS REAL: Bill Gates Funds Injectable Self-Assembling Birth Control Implants—What Could Possibly Go Wrong?

Injectable micro-crystals that self-assemble to control reproduction? Gates funded it, Nature Medicine published it. Relax—it's all perfectly safe and effective™.

Injectable micro-crystals that self-assemble inside your body to deliver long-term birth control? Totally normal.

"THIS IS REAL

Bill Gates recently funded a study [looking at] injectable... self-assembling birth control implants... they get in via a syringe... [then] clump together and form a 'monolithic implant'... [that releases] contraceptive hormones to make it so you're infertile."

Nicolas Hulscher, MPH, an epidemiologist and administrator at the McCullough Foundation, describes for Dr. Joseph Sansone ("a psychotherapist opposed to psychopathic authoritarianism") during a recent interview how Bill Gates has funded a study looking at "injectable micro-crystal self-assembling birth control implants" that are injected into people via a syringe.

Hulscher notes that once these components are injected into a person's body, they subsequently form a "monolithic implant" that proceeds to release "contraceptive hormones to make it so you're infertile."

Partial transcription of clip

"We know Bill Gates, he recently funded a study about these injectable micro-crystal self-assembling birth control implants. I mean this is just crazy stuff.

"Now it's literally now published, you know, in Nature Medicine or something.

"So you inject it these micro rocks, you could call them, but they're micro-crystals. And then they get in through, through a syringe, through a needle. And then all of a sudden once they get in, they clump together and form a, they call it a monolithic implant, which is now, then it's somewhere. I don't know where it's going to go, but it's somewhere. And then it slowly releases over months to years contraceptive hormones to make it so you're infertile.

"Gates, the same guy that funded this technology is the same guy that funded another study last year that found humanity has an irreversible birth rate collapse within the next few decades. So that means we'll literally collapse as a civilization. And they forecasted that. And then at the same time they're funding this anti-fertility technology.

"And [people like Gates] say on TV all the time we have too many people and we got to reduce CO2 through reducing the number of people, reducing the number of animals. I mean it's just, it's just ridiculous. And so we know that."

For the full study, you can read the article here: Self-aggregating long-acting injectable microcrystals – Nature TAP – It is not so much ridiculous as clear enough. The intention is not simply to reduce and control the human population in numbers, but to eliminate it entirely.

The Alternative View Presents Roger Anderton

Date: 4 May 2025

Time: 11:00 - 16:00

Location: The Assembly Rooms, Glastonbury, Somerset, UK

"Einstein Wrong and Special Relativity Revisited"

We are told the speed of light cannot be exceeded. What if that is wrong? What if Einstein was wrong and the theory of General Relativity is incorrect? Could that open up a whole new world of possibilities?

In May 2025 The Alternative View returns to Glastonbury where Roger Anderton will be asking those questions and putting forward an exciting new model.

Roger Anderton is from the John Chappell Natural Philosophy Society – a group that was formed on the idea that Einstein's relativity is wrong (especially special relativity is wrong). In relativity there are many paradoxes (such as twin paradox) which are really contradictions; thus the believers in relativity are talking nonsense. In trying to get this information out to the general public we have found our voice has been mostly blocked.

For first time in UK we are presenting publicly the film Einstein Wrong by David de Hilster which has been prevented from being shown at film festivals. Physics has been corrupted by relativity nonsense.

Event hosted by Gary Fraughen.
